

Probuild Delivers Stage one at The Glen redevelopment

Stage one at The Glen in Melbourne's Glen Waverly opens today, showcasing a vibrant selection of 60 new specialty food retailers along with a brand new Aldi, the latest format Woolworths and a Coles supermarket.

The Fresh Food Market is stage one of the centre's complete transformation, a $460 million redevelopment project set to deliver a premium customer experience.

The New Glen will come to life in five stages over three years, resulting in a new Town Square with dining over two levels, new mini-majors, a fresh food market hall and 240+ select stores on completion.

Probuild will deliver all five stages of The Glen's redevelopment while the centre continues to trade. Operating in a live retail environment, continued access to services and amenities is critical to the success of the redevelopment.

"Today's seamless opening of the fresh food market hall at The Glen is a fantastic achievement for Probuild and our partners Vicinity Centres," said Probuild's Victorian Managing Director, Luke Stambolis.

"We've enjoyed a 29-year relationship with Vicinity after building every major stage of Chadstone Shopping Centre, and we're pleased to be continuing this relationship here at The Glen."

"In our 30 years of operating, we've never missed an open date. Today is no exception."

Stage two of The Glen's redevelopment, The New Food Gallery, is set to open in early 2018.
