

Probuild Delivers No 1 Lachlan Street

National Tier-1 contractor Probuild has delivered 10-storey mixed use development No.1 Lachlan, Waterloo.

Constructed by Probuild for Golden Age Group and Time & Place, No. 1 Lachlan Street, Waterloo capitalises on proximity to schools, universities, parklands and the key transportation hubs of Green Square and Centre Station.

“No.1 Lachlan is part of the major urban renewal project, Green Square,” said Probuild’s NSW Managing Director, Nick Gaudry.

“This project is of phenomenal quality; not only in each individual apartment but the communal facilities.”

“The jewel in the crown is the communal rooftop garden, featuring City of Sydney approved landscaped designs and resident amenity areas.”

Golden Age Group managing director Jeff Xu said No. 1 Lachlan is a success for everyone involved delivering new welcoming public spaces with increased shopping, lifestyle and employment opportunities for the whole community

“We are very proud to have delivered No.1 Lachlan as part of the $13 billion urban renewal project, ‘Green Space’,” said Mr Xu.

“Once completed, the precinct will be an iconic Sydney destination, and it’s all just moments from No.1 Lachlan.”

The new mixed-use development consists of 143 apartments over three towers, and has been strategically constructed by Probuild to allow progressive handover of apartments, which has occurred over the past few months.
